IN THE NEWS

Holland College welcomes family and friends back to graduations

Faculty and students at Holland College are looking forward to this spring when expanded graduation ceremonies can once again include family and friends. Holland College President, Dr. Alexander (Sandy) MacDonald, said the entire college community is excited about the change.

Bursary established in memory of culinary instructor

Through the Chef Linda Hellingman endowment, the bursary will fund an ongoing award to help students who might not otherwise have the financial resources to realize their dreams of becoming a chef. The endowment was established at the Holland College Foundation through a $100,000 estate gift in addition to memorial donations made by Linda's family, friends, and colleagues.
